

trust is the most valued asset in business
relationships

64 % of our bids led to new contracts

Trust cultivates the common ground for growth in all relationships. This year, 64 % of all bids we entered resulted in new business contracts.

Our new customers searched for a reliable provider of telecommunications services and, at the same time, they found an experienced partner that helps their business grow. Czech Telecom provides the services and highly advanced solutions that businesses can depend on.
